

Foundation Events Provide Entertainment, Networking

Some of the best networking opportunities occur during the "off hours" at the Annual Meeting, so consider participating in one or more of these excellent Foundation activities in Providence.

Dinner with Orion Samuelson at the Providence Biltmore Hotel

Called the "Grand Dame of Providence," the Providence Biltmore Hotel will serve as the backdrop for featured broadcast legend Orion Samuelson at the ASABE Foundation Dinner. Samuelson is widely known as the host of "National Farm Report" and head agriculture broadcaster for Chicago's WGN Radio for the past 47 years. With Max Armstrong, he co-hosts The Morning Show and The Noon Show. In addition, he hosts a three-minute daily "National Farm Report" and a weekly commentary, "Samuelson Sez," both of which are syndicated to various stations throughout the U.S. Samuelson's presentation is generously sponsored by Sukup Manufacturing. This unforgettable dinner will be Tuesday, July 1, immediately following the Fellows reception. Tickets are $75 per person (a portion is tax-deductible). Look for this event on your Annual International Meeting registration form.

2nd Annual Gale A. Holloway Memorial Golf Outing

Golfers of all level are invited to participate in the Gale A. Holloway Memorial Golf Outing, Sunday morning, June 29, at Triggs Memorial Golf Course in Providence. Opened in 1932 and designed by Donald Ross, the course uses the existing topography, contours and bunkers to create a challenging golfing experience. The $100 fee for the outing, partially tax-deductible, includes 18 holes, cart and lunch, as well as gift packages, trophies and prizes for winning duffers. This fundraising event will benefit the Foundation General Fund. Look for this event on your Annual International Meeting registration form. Not a golfer? Can't attend this year's meeting? Consider sponsoring a cart, hole or hole contest. Contact Linda Young, (800) 371-2723, x306, or download a sponsor form.

Foundation Silent Auction Accepting Donations

Many gifts from companies, universities and sections have already been collected for this year's Silent Auction, but we need your donation to make this our most successful silent auction ever! What to donate? Consider corporate or university logo items, sports memorabilia, agricultural and biological engineering publications; one-of-a-kind gift baskets filled with locally produced goods, or items from your national heritage, such as paintings, jewelry or handmade goods. All auction proceeds will benefit the Foundation General Fund. An auction donor form is available online. To donate or for additional information, contact Linda Young, (800) 371-2723 x 306. Items should arrive at headquarters no later than June 2 for shipment to the meeting. If you are bringing an item with you, please mail or fax the form to headquarters by May 27.
